THE MILITIA CALLED FOR.

The Knoxville Whig of Wednesday publishes, by authority, the proclamation of the Governor calling for the militis. It is such a document as might be expected from its source-abounding in falsification of facts; amplification of outrages; bitter aliusions to the disfranchised former opponents of BROWNLOW; gratification that the Legislature has conferred upon His Excellency more than autocratic powers, and an illyconcealed eagerness to enforce the vengeance the untimely instrument pro-
